FIRE DESTROYS DOERSOM HOME

The home of Mrs. Lula Doersom, about two miles east of here on the Bonneville Rd. was destroyed by fire this morning.

Mrs. Doersom was beginning her noon meal in the kitchen when the oil stove on which she was cooking exploded. The septuagenarian, who resides alone, tried to extinguish the blaze and suffered burns of the hands. When the fire got beyond her control she fled the house and the Gettysburg Fire Department was summoned at 10:45 o'clock.

Gettysburg firemen nearly collided with an auto on the Bonneville hill enroute to the blaze. The motorist, trying to negotiate the slippery hill, skidded sideways in front of the first engine but was not struck.

Arriving at the scene firemen called the Metropolitan Edison Co. to cut off power to electric lines which burned off at the house. Bonneville and Barlow firemen were called to help protect nearby property and extinguish the fire in the Doersom house.

Gettysburg firemen found no water available and called for the "General Ike" to bring its additional supply of water. Barlow and Bonneville were called also for their large water carrying capacity.

Fire trucks had difficulty negotiating Bonneville hill and the state highway department was called to place cinders on the highway there and at the scene where water caused additional icy conditions.

Mrs. Doersom was removed to the home of her son, Charles Doersom, Chambersburg Pike.

"ABANDONED" CEMETERIES TO GET ATTENTION

Abandoned cemeteries in Adams County, which have long been a cause for concern to the Adams County Historical Society and some of which have been cleared periodically by the Junior Historians of Gettysburg High School, may get more attention in the future from their township supervisors, members of the historical society learned Tuesday evening at their December meeting at the court house.

The society discussed provisions of a law passed by the 1957 state legislature which makes the abandoned cemeteries the responsibility of the supervisors of the townships in which the cemeteries lie.

The historians learned Tuesday evening that 25 residents of a township may petition the county court for an order requiring township supervisors to care for such cemeteries within the township and spend up to $100 a year of township funds annually for such a purpose.

List Some Cemeteries

The matter was placed in the hands of the society's committee on Neglected Cemeteries for study and action. The committee, headed by J. M. Sheads, will consult an attorney about the best way to proceed.

HISTORIANS ASK PRESERVATION OF "OLD DORM"

The Adams County Historical Society went on record Tuesday evening at its December meeting as favoring the preservation of the old dormitory at the Gettysburg Lutheran Theological Seminary and then heard a paper read on another historic building on the seminary campus, the Schmucker house, present residence of Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Wentz.

With the seminary board of directors pondering an earlier decision to raze the old building, the historians urged its preservation, directed that a committee of three be appointed by President W. E. Tilberg to draw up suitable resolutions and represent the society in any community effort to gain preservation of the dormitory which was a battle hospital and observation point for General Robert E. Lee.

The paper on the Schmucker house was read by J. M. Sheads. He used a history written several years ago by Dr. A. R. Wentz, former president of the seminary and for 40 years a resident of the house along Springs Ave., south of the seminary administration building.

Hit By 13 Shells

Built in 1930 when the seminary was only four years old, the house served most of its 127 years as the residence of the president of the seminary. It served successively as the home of Dr. Samuel S. Schmucker, first president of the seminary; Dr. James A. Brown, Dr. Charles Stork, Dr. Milton Valentine, Dr. Luther Kuhlman and then Dr. Wentz. It is older than the old dormitory, used first in 1832, the year Gettysburg College was founded. The large house, several times enlarged since that time, cost $2,000 in 1830.

Mr. Sheads read of the damage done at the Schmucker home by Rebel troops who occupied the dwelling during the battle. It was felt that damage there was unusually severe because of Dr. (Continued On Page 3)

SEVERE STORM HITS AREA AND STALLS TRAFFIC

The worst December snowstorm in Adams County in six years paralyzed traffic today which the State Highway Department had every available man and snowplow at work.

Early this afternoon the highway office here reported all roads open to traffic but traveling was described as "very treacherous." Drifting was reported in many rural sections, with a coating of frozen slush under the new fallen snow.

Many reports of skidding cars were received here and several accidents were reported to state police due to hazardous road conditions.

The snow began to fall about 6 p.m. Tuesday. There was sleet and rain here but in the mountains it snowed from about 6 p.m. until nearly midnight.

The accident was one of three investigated by state police this morning on county highways.

Because of the dangerous conditions of the roads, the officers investigating remained at the scenes of the accidents to direct traffic and prevent further crashes rather than report in to the state police headquarters. As a result, details on the collisions were unavailable.

CHAPTER ONE

A PRINCE IS BORN

Once upon a time, many years ago, there lived three little men named Noodle, Tiggie and Livingstone.

They were only six inches tall! They lived in a house made of half a watermelon rind and they fed on fresh boiled buttercups and acorn stew.

The watermelon house was also a workshop, for the three little men were good fairy wizards. They spent their entire lives making magic potions.

Three of their potions were Strength, Courage and Wisdom.

Whenever a prince was born in the Kingdom of Mittenpoo, Noodle, Tiggie and Livingstone would go, in invisible cloaks, to the palace and, before the prince was nine hours old, they would sprinkle him with their magic potions of Strength, Courage and Wisdom.

No one ever saw the three little men but it never failed that the princes of Mittenpoo grew up to be kings of great courage, strength and wisdom. This was the way it (Continued On Page 10)

IT WAS A BIT EMBARRASSING, DULLES ADLAI

WASHINGTON (AP)—It was an embarrassing moment for most of those concerned in yesterday's lengthy White House conference on international problems.

As described by one of those who attended, the situation was like this:

President Eisenhower was presiding over discussion of North Atlantic Pact problems. Secretary of State Dulles was explaining the administration's proposals for sharing of nuclear weapons information with Britain and other allies.

Adlai E. Stevenson, twice defeated as a Democratic presidential candidate, sat in a corner, silently apart from the Democratic and Republican leaders participating in the conference.

"Wild Statements"

A Republican senator asked how the administration would feel if it shared nuclear weapons information with the British government and suddenly found the Labor party had taken over in that country.

That would promote Aneurin Bevan, a Laborite leader, to the post of foreign secretary. Bevan has discounted the Russian menace and has called for a high-level meeting among the United States, Britain and Russia to attack world problems.

The senator, disputing Dulles' opinion that no such change was imminent, said he didn't like Bevan's utterances.

Well, Dulles was quoted as replying, it had been his experience that people out of power make some wild statements but they are sobered by responsibilities.

Eyes turned toward Stevenson, who was said to have blushed furiously. He had attacked both Dulles and Eisenhower in highly critical terms in the 1956 campaign.

Suddenly, there was a ripple of laughter from the assembled leaders as Dulles, realizing that protocol had not been served turned and grinned sheepishly at Stevenson.

Asks Governor To Save E. L. Lindsay

DOUGLAS, Wyo. (AP)—Gov. Milward L. Simpson has been asked by the attorney for Ernest L. Lindsay to save the young Harrisburg, Pa., man from death in Wyoming's gas chamber.

The Wyoming Supreme Court recently upheld Lindsay's appeal from a first degree murder conviction and set Jan. 4, 1958, as his execution date. Lindsay was convicted last year of shooting Herbert E. Diester of Lawndale, Calif.

Atty. Joseph B. Sullivan said yesterday he pleaded with the governor that Lindsay is a young man. "I feel he shouldn't pay the supreme penalty," Sullivan said. "I am hopeful for the best."

Simpson has said previously he could not permit the death penalty to be carried out while he was governor.

Horse Racing At Pimlico Cancelled

BALTIMORE (AP)—Horse racing at Pimlico was cancelled today by snow for the first time in modern memory.

The Maryland Racing Commission approved the cancellation with two to three inches of snow on the track and more coming down.

The track, which opened in 1870, is scheduled to run through Dec. 14. It held racing for the first time in the last month of the year in 1955.

It has not been decided whether Pimlico will try to make up for the lost day at the end of the current meeting or be awarded an extra program next year.

False Pretense Count Dismissed

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Dauphin County court today dismissed an indictment against a Lancaster County man charged with cheating by false pretense while an employee of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission.

The court, sitting en banc, ruled that the indictment against John Sides, Manheim, should be thrown out on the ground that "it does not charge commission of a crime within the statute of limitations."

Sides was charged with cheating the Turnpike Commission while he was maintenance foreman at the commission's Mt. Getzner work-shed.

Sides was among those indicted by the Dauphin County grand jury last June on various charges in connection with turnpike operations.

JERUSALEM, Israel Sector (AP)—"Agreement has been reached in the Mt. Scopus conveyance affair," Premier Ben-Gurion announced today after two days' conference with U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld.

The white stern light, required on all motorboats up to 65 feet, may be mounted off the centerline on powerboats under 26 feet. The ruling has been approved by the U.S. Coast Guard.

BLAME CREWS FOR CRASH OF 2 CARGO VESSELS

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A U.S. Coast Guard investigation board announced today that the crash of two cargo vessels in the Delaware River last March 7 was the fault of personnel of both ships and could have been avoided if proper precautions had been taken.

The Mission San Francisco, a tanker, and the SS Elma II, a dry cargo vessel, collided in the river channel below Wilmington, Del. Ten members of the San Francisco's crew were killed.

Both ships were listed as total losses with damage estimated by the Coast Guard at 3½ million dollars. The Mission San Francisco was valued at 3 million.

Vice Adm. A. C. Richmond, commandant of the Coast Guard, in a statement issued with the report of the three-man investigating board, said, "the record discloses quite clearly that neither the Mission San Francisco nor the Elma II was certain of its position in the channel. Both vessels were uncertain of the position, speed, course, or intention of the other."

He added: "This uncertainty, under the conditions and circumstances then existing (it was raining at the time of the crash) resulted in the collision. This uncertainty would not have existed had both vessels been navigated in conformance with the collision regulations applicable under the circumstances."

EXTEND SALE OF UNICEF CARDS

Plans to continue the sale of UNICEF Christmas and gift cards at the YWCA until a week before Christmas were outlined Tuesday evening at a meeting of Adams County UNICEF workers at the "Y" including Mrs. G. W. Hershey, Mrs. William Bariga, Mrs. Betsy Winebrenner, Mrs. D. A. Paddock, Mrs. Jacob Heikkinen and Rev. R. A. MacAskill.

Displays of the cards will be continued at the AAA office on Lincoln Square and at the YWCA. The workers noted that the cards are suitable both for general note purposes as well as Christmas greetings with a U.N. motif.

Rev. Mr. MacAskill said: "UNICEF cards are in full color, with season's greetings in red and green in five official languages of the United Nations. You can make music for children everywhere by participating in this great effort to help all the world's children by sending UNICEF greeting cards since the proceeds from world-wide sales go directly to the United Nations Children's Fund, UNICEF, supported by voluntary contributions of individuals, organizations and governments, gives aid only on the basis of need and helps underdeveloped countries help themselves. Every UNICEF dollar must be 'matched' by countries requesting aid — and often, their contributions are double or more.

"UNICEF, this year, is aiding more than 45 million children and their mothers in over 95 countries and territories around the world. With food, DDT, penicillin and vaccines, UNICEF supplies the ammunition to combat malnutrition and diseases which are the scourges of childhood.

"Our hopes for a better tomorrow rest in the children of today and 600 million children throughout the world lack adequate food and protection against disease. Today's children can be given a chance for a happy tomorrow by supporting through greeting and not card purchases."

Appler Suggests New Dog License

County Treasurer Jacob G. Appler today suggested as the ideal Christmas gift for the canine members of the family — a new 1958 dog license.

Seven thousand dog permits have been received by the treasurer and it is anticipated that the number sold in 1958 will exceed the 5,114 individual dog and 65 kennel licenses granted during 1957.

Appler said state officials, who visited while delivering the licenses, were of the opinion that the number of licenses for dogs will increase next year because the former dog catcher, now deceased, was ill during part of the last year and could not make customary trips.

Santa Claus Begins Xmas Festivities With Parades In Switzerland On Dec. 6th

By JOE GOULD

Although Switzerland is known to the world as a place where peace and good will toward men exists as a permanent fixture, at Christmas the tranquility is shattered by the practice of many unique and ancient yuletide customs.

The festivities begin early in Switzerland. Santa Claus makes his debut on the birthday of St. Nicholas, which is December 6. In villages and cities throughout the country, St. Nicholas parades are held. The Swiss Santa Claus, who is dressed similarly to the American Kris Kringle, heads these colorful processions carry a bag filled with apples, prunes, nuts and home made cookies which he distributes to children.

Procession Of Tots

A particularly interesting celebration is held on December 6 in Wollishofen, a suburb situated on the lake of Zurich just outside the big city. A procession of tiny tots, dressed in Santa Claus costumes, make their way to the center of the town. They are led by a giant Santa Claus with a long white beard, who carries a large sack filled with an assortment of goodies which he hands out to the children when they reach Lindenhof, a large square populated with lime trees.

In some of the villages St. Nicholas is celebrated with elaborate and colorful processions. Leading the marchers are towering mountain herdsman, who rattle a quiet night air with the uniform cracking of the long, traditional, whips. They are followed by an oddly attired contingent of 50 dancers, wearing white robes and cardboard hats, measuring six feet in height.

Colorful Hats

The hats have an interesting color pattern, made up of tissue paper which covers special openings cut into the cardboard chapeau. The effect is particularly startling when the candles inside the huge hats are lit. Then they resemble a cathedral with its lights on. Herdsmen, wearing brass cowbells which resound with a musical tinkle as they walk, follow the white-robed dancers. Finally, comes the Alp horn blower, and at the very end of the procession the pious robed and bearded figure of old St. Nicholas.

In many sections of Switzerland, the exchange of gifts takes place on Christmas Eve after the visit of the Christkind. Usually, a girl, dressed all in white, her face veiled and her head crowned with sparkling gems, plays the role of the Christ Child. Accompanied by an entourage of little children all in white, she calls at every home in the village. When she appears the Christmas tree is lit and the traditional exchange of Christmas gifts begins.

Christmas Superstitions

There are many Christmas superstitions through Switzerland which are still fervently believed. One cus-

U.S. Hopes

During one of the Vanguard delays, attempts were made by other missile crews to squeeze in some of their work. Schooley reported that a Northrop aircraft crew started to launch a Snark guided missile but halted its countdown.

There also reportedly was a static test—a firing on the stand—of a Thor intermediate-range missile.

The Navy has been assigned the responsibility for launching six or more small scientific satellites during the International Geophysical Year now in progress.

The project was given the name Baltimore won the over-all Con-Vanguard, and the Martin Co. of tract for the rocket.

Plan Other Launchings
Martin's Vanguard team also is directing the test launching program—the attempt to put three or four comparatively simple 6½-inch experimental spheres into an orbit around the earth before the instrument-filled, 21-inch moons are sent aloft.

This part of Florida developed a feverish interest in the missile test center.

During the early morning hours, there were automobiles and watchers on the beaches overlooking the closed area. At dawn, scores of persons waited on the sand, unaware of the fact that there could be no launching before mid-afternoon.

G. C. Murphy Holds Open House Tuesday

The G. C. Murphy Company played "host" Tuesday night, when Open House was held for employees of the company and their families at the store, 236 were present.

The purpose of the occasion was to give the employees an opportunity to share in yuletide festivities as well as meet the families of their co-workers and friends, Paul E. Wakefield, manager, said.

The local Murphy store was a perfect setting for a holiday party . . . being decorated in typical Christmas fashion. Refreshments were served, and door prizes awarded. Particular interest was shown when the families and guests were conducted on a "Behind-the-Scene" tour of the store's operation. Everybody was permitted to take advantage of the shopping time and make their Christmas gift selections in an uncrowded atmosphere.

REJECT PROBE OF RAIDING BY 5 MILK GROUPS

NEW YORK (AP)—A request for an investigation of alleged membership raiding by five proposed new dairy cooperatives in Pennsylvania has been turned down by the Federal Milk Marketing Administrator here, C. J. Blanford.

The Eastern Milk Producers Cooperative Assn., Inc., of Syracuse, N. Y., made the request.

Blanford, administrator for the New York State-New Jersey Milk Marketing Area, said yesterday in a telegram to J. Thomas Cribbs, president of Eastern:

"It is not our prerogative and we would not have it so to decide for producers with what qualified association they should become affiliated."

The request by the Eastern group for an investigation had been addressed to U. S. Secretary traffic in that hilly city. The highways in the mountain areas of the state were reported extremely dangerous and motorists were warned to avoid travel wherever possible.

The storm was expected to continue through much of today, passing out of the state eastward bound in the late afternoon or early evening. Much of the snow was to remain on the ground in the 20-degree temperature predicted for a major portion of the state.

The weatherman said Thursday would bring milder and fairer weather—good news for the motorist but bad news for sledding-hungry youngsters.

of Agriculture Benson and Daniel J. Carey, New York state commissioner of agriculture and markets, as well as to Blanford. Blanford is Benson's representative here as milk marketing administrator.

Back Blanford's Action
There was no indication whether Blanford had conferred with Benson on the request for an investigation. But it was presumed in marketing circles that Benson would back Blanford's action. Blanford's telegram to Cribbs said:

"This is in reply to your telegram concerning the withdrawal of 600 of your members in Central Pennsylvania and your request that we investigate same.

"As a cooperative association qualified to receive payments from the New York-New Jersey pool, you should fully realize that it has long been our position that so-called 'raiding activities' are not deemed by us to be a proper activity either of your association or the others similarly qualified to receive payments.

"In spite of our position, neither your association nor the others qualified have ever sought legally to outlaw such raiding activities. Your request therefore seems to us to be one of expediency. It is not our prerogative and we would not have it so to decide for producers with what qualified association they should become affiliated. Accordingly, withdrawals from your association processed the same as those received by us from members of other qualified organizations."

Commenting on Blanford's position, Cribbs said in a statement at Syracuse:

Since 1953 when Michigan State began football in the Big Ten the Spartans have had six of their players gain all-conference first-team honors.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times
TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Trees Honor G. Washington: The November quarterly meeting of the Religious Society of Friends was held at the Friends Meeting House at Flora Dale on Saturday and Sunday.

During the Sabbath School hour six trees planted to commemorate the birth year of George Washington were dedicated by members of the school. The names of those participating will be inscribed near the roots of the trees which were read and white oaks and one elm. A root of ivy propagated from a sprig taken from the Mt. Vernon ivy on the tomb of Washington was also dedicated.

Deer Scarce Here, Asserts Game Warden: The deer season opens in Adams County Thursday morning. BUT —

Deer are scarcer than any time in recent years, so many sportsmen from Gettysburg and Adams County are planning to take their chances in other counties of the state.

Leo E. Bushman, Baltimore Street, Adams County game warden, said he cannot recall when deer have been as scarce in Adams County as they are this year.

A prime reason for the scarcity of antlered deer is the fact that many deer, many of them very young, were killed in Adams County last year, Mr. Bushman said.

Newlyweds Are Home From Trip: Mr. and Mrs. Myles R. Deardorff, who were married on Wednesday evening, November 23, at the home of the bride's parents in Arendtsville, returned from a wedding trip Sunday. The wedding was solemnized in the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Griswold by the Rev. George B. Ely, pastor of the Arendtsville Lutheran Church.

Countdown Joins Expedition Into Brazil Jungle: David E. Starry, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Roy Starry, York Springs, will sail December 31 from New York for Jamaica where he will join an expedition party bound for Ecuador, Paraguay and Brazil. They will go 3,000 miles up the Amazon River to the highlands of Ecuador. The party will study the head-hunting tribes of that region who shrink victim's heads in hot sand to decorate their huts. The party will be gone from home for three years.

Start Work On New Bridge: Work was begun today by the state Department of Highways on the construction of a new bridge over Conewago Creek on the Hanover Road at Brantown where an old covered bridge now spans the stream. The bridge will be a 90-foot steel stringer structure with masonry abutments.

Four Deer Are Killed Thursday In Local Camps: With deer reported scarcer than any time in recent years and with fewer sportsmen in the woods, the big game season opened in desultory manner in Adams County Thursday.

The Pine Hill Camp, composed mostly of Fairfield sportsmen, reported three deer killed. The successful hunters were Harry E. Hartzell, Oliver Musselman and Joseph Harbaugh, all of Fairfield. John Brady, of Biglerville, a member of the Old Arendtsville Camp, brought down a 10-point buck weighing about 150 pounds near the Big Flat.

Nurse Weds Local Man Thursday: Miss Orilla E. Fritz, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Fritz, Chambersburg, and a nurse at the Annie M. Warner Hospital here for five years, and Richard E. Dutters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Victor W. S. Dutters, Baltimore Street, were married in Washington Memorial Chapel, Valley Forge, Thursday.

Fire Company Elects Officers: A. J. Hawn was elected president of the Bonneauville Fire Company at a meeting Thursday evening. He succeeds J. F. Staub.

Other officers chosen include Joseph A. Chrismer, vice president; C. J. Weaver, secretary; C. H. Smith, treasurer; Ambrose Myers, chief; L. F. Smith, first

Today's Talk

BETTER THINGS AHEAD
We need sustaining convictions to help in the formation of a plan of life and a personal philosophy. We need to keep in our mind at all times that there always are better things ahead. And to realize these better things, we should dedicate our mind and heart.

We should early, and continually, learn to appraise the values in life and how to select them as guides. Often the greatest values are neglected or overlooked. One of the great secrets of life is to learn an adequate approach to these values, and, when once appraised, to cling to them as one does to hope.

There is a quality of life that each one of us can make his own. To gain that quality is to get set upon the smooth road to a good success. The trivial things drop away, and the significant things loom in all their splendor! What a worthwhile idea is this of always believing that there are better things ahead!

We can educate our feelings and set our thoughts upon the better things in life. How damaging are thoughts that have small areas! If we feel big things as a plan of life we are bound to attempt them — and complete them. We should learn to feel possibilities, and then to pursue them. Our eyes and mind should be set upon them.

When most discouraged we should never lose heart or surrender to insignificant ways. There are better things ahead, and they are for each one of us. We are never beyond educating ourselves to these better things ahead. They were meant for us! There are always new worlds to conquer!

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Capacity to Enjoy!"

Red Trade Unions Seize 3rd Business And Eye 3 Banks

JAKARTA (AP)—Communist-led trade unions today took over a third major Dutch enterprise and set a watch on three leading Dutch banks in the downtown business section.

A government source said that the Cabinet had held a special session to discuss ways of preventing a wholesale takeover of Dutch firms by the unions. But so far the government was moving cautiously.

The Sobsi Trade Union Federation informed the Jacobson Vandenberg Trading Co. at noon that its members were taking control. Officials of the company protested that he union action was without authority.

The Jakarta military commander, Lt. Col. Endang Dachjar, said in a radio broadcast yesterday that decisions to take over Dutch enterprises should be made by the government or by the West Irian Liberation Committee.

Director I. Rute of the firm said the firm was still maintaining excellent relations with the unions. He said they took over after friendly talks.

Workers seized the offices of the KPM Royal Netherlands Shipping Lines and the Royal Intercean Lines yesterday, raising the red flag of the federation and sending Dutch employees home without their cars.

Dutch employees were allowed to enter offices of the firm this morning, but union guards were still numerous.

Directors of Lindteves, a large Dutch import-export firm, said union leaders also tried to take control of their firm this morning but were talked out of it by company officials.

Three banks were being watched today by members of the unions wearing red arm bands. They said they were noting all persons entering the banks and keeping a count on the amount of money withdrawn.

BOSTON CELTICS STAGING ROUT

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The Boston Celtics have completed one-fourth of their National Basketball Assn. schedule and with a 16-2 record appear headed for a rout of their competition in the circuit's eastern division.

Most of the time, the Celtics get the bulk of their scoring from either Bob Cousy, Bill Sharman or Bill Russell. Sometimes it is someone else.

Last night, the "someone else" was Frank Ramsey, who dropped in 35 points as Boston rode over the Detroit Pistons 124-113.

The triumph enabled Boston to increase its lead to seven games over the Syracuse Nationals, who moved into that spot with a 119-96 victory over Philadelphia Warriors in the first game of a Madison Square Garden doubleheader. The New York Knickerbockers beat Cincinnati's Royals 110-104 in the second game.

The St. Louis Hawks also continued to roll along with a 115-108 triumph over the hapless Minneapolis Lakers.

Sputniks Brought Satellites To Light

NEW YORK (AP)—Just a few months before Sputnik I was launched, half the American people hadn't heard of the U.S. earth satellite program, the American Rocket Society heard today.

Social psychologist Donald N. Michael reported that a pre-Sputnik cross-section survey of Baltimore citizens indicated that five sixths of them didn't understand our satellite plans.

Even after the Sputniks were circling the globe, Michael said, 10 per cent of the freshmen and sophomores at one university said they didn't know the Russians had launched a satellite.

Michael made the statements in a talk prepared for a rocket society panel on the problem of getting public support for future rocket and space programs.

GIRARD BUSTED TO PRIVATE AND MAY BE OUSTED

CAMP DREW, Japan (AP)—The U.S. Army today broke Specialist 3C. William S. Girard to buck private and indicated his Japanese manslaughter convictions might also mean an undesirable discharge for him.

The homebound GI took the news in stride and scrapped any plans he might have had for a military career after four years of Army service.

"I don't think I got a raw deal, and I'm getting out . . . I didn't think I had it coming, but it was legal," Girard said after the Army took its first punitive action against him for the Jan. 30 killing of a Japanese woman scrap scavenger.

U. S. Spent $90,000
The Army, which spent an estimated $90,000 on the controversial case, said Girard was demoted under regulations as a result of his conviction in a foreign court. The action cuts his pay from $252.40 a month to $173.90 for the 55 days remaining of his enlistment.

A second announcement said Girard will sail for San Francisco with his Japanese wife Friday, and Secretary of the Army Wilbur Brucker will determine the type of discharge he gets.

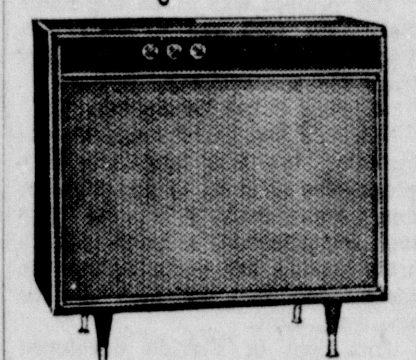

An Army spokesman said the three possible discharges for Girard are honorable, general or undesirable. He would not say what the recommendation to Brucker would be.

COURT ORDERS YOUNG LOVERS TO RETURN HOME

LONDON (AP)—A judge Tuesday ordered runaway lovers Tessa Kennedy and Dominic Elwes to return from Scotland and break up their romance.

In Edinburgh, where the 19-year-old socialite heiress and her 26-year-old fiance fled to escape English jurisdiction, the couple vowed to fight any court action banning their marriage.

"We are going to fight this all the way," Miss Kennedy said. "If our parents bring an action against us in a Scottish court, we will fight it. We are so much in love. We thought this over for a long time."

Elwes said they may flee to the United States to escape the consequences of parental opposition to their marriage.

The court order of Judge Ronald F. Roxburgh was the second legal action taken to stop the marriage. Last week the court granted Miss Kennedy's parents an injunction restraining the couple from marrying.

Five Fire Companies Fight $100,000 Blaze

BLAIRSTOWN, N. J. (AP)—A fire started in a heat treating oven burned out the inside of the Payne Cutlery Co. plant near the center of town here yesterday.

Five fire companies were unable to check the blaze through the one-story brick and frame building.

Factory general manager Roger N. Farr Jr. set the loss at about $150,000. A $100,000 fire swept through the same factory in 1950.

Eighty employees in the quarter block square building, a block from Main Street, fled out without injury, firemen said.

The honey blonde Tessa, heiress to a shipping fortune, is an "infant ward" of the court. Elwes is the son of English portrait painter Simon Elwes.

So long as the couple remain in Scotland they cannot be made to obey the English court order. Elwes told newsmen in Edinburgh he and Miss Kennedy may go to New York City.

"If we marry, I certainly cannot go back to England," he said. "I think we will go to America, where my father is," said Elwes.

His father, Simon Elwes is a portrait painter who recently opened a studio in New York City. He said he too opposes the marriage.

LIST CAPITANI AND KEMPTON ON "LITTLE" ALL AMERICA TEAMS

By HAROLD CLAASSEN
NEW YORK (AP)—A halfback, playing for a small college but so good he was chosen in the first round of the pro draft, is the bulk of The Associated Press' annual Little All America announced today.

He is Leonard Lyles of Louisville, who led the nation's scorers with 132 points. His team won a berth in the Sun Bowl at El Paso, Tex., against Drake, because of his high-scoring exploits. The Baltimore Colts of the National Football League made him their first draft pick this week.

Others in the backfield are Norman Jarock, St. Norbert's in Wisconsin, the total offense leader among the players competing for the smaller colleges; Dan Nolan, Lehigh, the T-formation perfectionist drafted by the Washington Redskins; and Charles Bradshaw, Wofford, whose club battered 8 of 10 foes, including some members of the Southern Conference.

Four Carriers Seniors
All four of the ball carriers are seniors, average 6-1 on height and weigh about 185 each.

In front of this quartet are seven robust linemen with the two tackles and end Howard Clark of Chattanooga outstanding.

The Bolt reserves also lost, dropping the preliminary 31-25.

SHAMOKIN WILL CONTEST CHANGE IN GRID RATING

HAZLETON, Pa. (AP)—The Eastern Scholastic Football Conference will hold an emergency meeting here tonight to talk over the controversy revolving around its Southern Division championship.

Shamokin High School has threatened legal action to preserve its standing at the top of the division based on last weekend's ratings.

Clifford V. Jones, superintendent of the Shamokin area joint schools, said yesterday any attempt to eliminate Shamokin from the championship would violate the conference constitution. He notified Frank Thornton, conference president, that the school board had voted to take legal action if such attempt is made.

Shamokin's announcement followed on the heels of a decision by Summit Hill High School to play off its postponed conference games with Lansford and McAdoo. The decision was widely viewed as almost assuring Cass Twp., runner-up in the division according to the weekend ratings, the championship.

Could Change Ratings
This view was based on the fact that Cass, which was rated 592 compared to Shamokin's 594, beat Lansford during the season.

Thus, a victory by Lansford, which was 5-3 on the season, over Summit Hill, which failed to win any of its three games, would boost Cass Twp.'s rating under the conference scoring system over the 600 mark. Since Shamokin played neither school, its rating will remain unaffected by the outcome of the game, scheduled for Saturday.

The McAdoo game will have no bearing on the ratings but was rescheduled in order for Summit Hill to meet the requirement that a school must play five conference games before its record can count in the rating system.

Summit Hill tentatively set the McAdoo game for Dec. 12 or 13.

BRADLEY, IOWA REGISTER EARLY WINS TUESDAY

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press
Bradley's hot-shooting Braves are still at it, declaring themselves "in" on the race for national honors in college basketball with an impressive 97-47 victory over Illinois Normal.

Iowa, relying mostly on sophomores, defeated Southern Methodist 65-60 in overtime. Holden Gentry, a 6-7 Hawkeye whose foul gave SMU the free throw it needed for a 54-54 deadlock at the end of regulation time, canned six points in the extra session. SMU's Bob James was high scorer with 23.

WHITE SOX AND ORIOLES TRADE THREE FOR THREE

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—The Chicago White Sox completed a 3-for-3 swap with Baltimore to kick off the player trading at the national baseball convention last night.

The deal sends White Sox center fielder Larry Doby, pitcher Jack Harshman and another player to be named later to the Orioles for infielder Billy Goodman, pitcher Ray Moore and outfielder Tito Francona.

Doby, 33, and Harshman, 30, had disappointing records last season. Goodman, 31, veteran of more than 10 years in the majors, was injured part of the past season. Francona, 24, is a promising slugger. Moore had a 11-win, 13-loss record with fifth-place Baltimore.

More Trade Rumors
Convention centers are bubbling with trade rumors. The Philadelphia Phillies are offering pitcher Robin Roberts and outfielder Richie Ashburn in proposed deals for younger talent.

Ashburn and left-handed pitcher Harvey Haddix were offered by the Phils for St. Louis third baseman Ken Boyer, but the deal was rejected.

Cincinnati offered an unidentified outfielder for Roberts and the Phils responded by asking for center fielder Gus Bell in exchange but the swap failed. It was reported the Reds offered outfielder Wally Post.

Washington and Detroit were trying to connect on a multi-player deal. The latest Detroit proposition being studied by Washington proposes: (1) infielder Ray Boone and either pitchers Bob Shaw or Hal Woodeshick to go to the Chicago White Sox in a trade for pitcher Bob (No Hit) Keegan and outfielder Bubba Phillips; (2) Detroit would then send Phillips, infielder Jim Finigan, outfielder Jimmy Greengrass and catcher J. W. Porter to Washington for catcher Lou Berberet and infielder Pete Runnels.

ANGRY MINOR LEAGUES ACT AGAINST TV

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (AP)—The minor leagues, angered by increased television invasion of their territory by the major leagues, have appointed a task force to combat the latest encroachment—a Sunday TV game of the week.

National Association President George M. Trautman, in a bitter denunciation of baseball leaders whom he called "selfish men who are permitting their own structure to crumble," vowed today to "battle to the bitter end" the majors' plan to add a Sunday TV game to their already established Saturday game of the week.

"The minors enjoyed their healthiest year in 1949, when there were no television networks," he said. "We drew 41 million people to our parks that year. We drew only 17 million this year. Why? Major league TV networks came upon us in 1950. Then we came in for the Saturday afternoon televised game of the week. Now we are threatened with a Sunday afternoon game of the week. Why, Sunday is our pay-day."

The committee, a seven-man body comprised of the presidents of the seven classification leagues of the National Association, has been commissioned to make a formal protest to the major league owners and Commissioner Ford Frick and "take appropriate action" if the majors go through with their Sunday TV plan.

CHAMP BROWN MEETS SPEEDY LOPES TONIGHT

CHICAGO (AP)—Diminutive Joey Lopes puts his speed against the canniness and punching power of champion Joe Brown tonight in a lightweight title fight.

Brown, who has scored 28 knockouts in winning 67 of 90 bouts, is a solid favorite although the challenger from Sacramento, Calif., held the champ to a 10-round non-title draw four months ago at Chicago Stadium.

This accomplishment earned the 27-year-old Lopes a shot at the crown and the match was made by the International Boxing Club despite sharp criticism from some quarters that No. 2 ranked Kenny Lane deserved the chance.

Lopes, who stands 5-6 and is two inches shorter than Brown, is rated the No. 7 contender by the National Boxing Assn. and No. 6 by Ring Magazine. He has 43 victories in 57 starts and is credited with 16 kayos.

The 15 rounder at Chicago Stadium will be televised nationally (10 p.m. EST, ABC) with Chicago blacked out. There will be no radio broadcast.

Brown, at least four years older than the Portugal-born challenger, is unbeaten in his last 13 fights. He is one of the busiest fighters in the business, having had six bouts

RIEPL IS GIVEN VARSITY AWARD

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Frank Riepl, quarterback on last season's Penn football squad, has received the Varsity Football Club award as the outstanding senior on the team.

Riepl received the honor at the annual Penn football banquet last night. At the same time Roman Ostapiak of Conemaugh Twp. was named outstanding freshman football player of the year. He was the regular center on the freshman squad.

Earlier, Ray Kelly, junior center from Archbald, Pa., was elected captain of the 1958 Penn football team. Kelly was a regular guard in 1956 and also started every game for the Red and Blue last season.

Letters and gold footballs were awarded 32 men, including 10 seniors, 11 juniors and 11 sophomores.

Also honored at the banquet was Ray Frick, captain of the 1940 Penn squad. He was named the fifth recipient of the annual award to Penn's Man of the Year. Frick is vice president of the Railway Division of the American Brake Shoe Co. with headquarters in New York.

already this year. This will be his third title defense since winning the 135-pound crown from Wallace (Bud) Smith Aug. 24, 1956.

DEBORAH KERR SAYS FUNERALS ARE 'BARBARIC'

(EDITOR'S NOTE — Funerals, lovely Deborah Kerr thinks, are "barbaric" because they emphasize death's negative side. But the "real I" will live on and return to oneness with God, the famed actress believes. This is the first of three articles by noted persons on life beyond the grave.)

HOLLYWOOD — Recently my secretary, who had been with me most of the 11 years I have been in America, died after a long illness. I pondered how to break the news to my two daughters, who had been very close to her.

The girls' nurse came into the room while I was talking with Melanie, my 9-year-old, and said, "The funeral will be on Monday."

"What funeral?" asked Melanie, her eyes bright with interest. Francesca is 5, and not quite so curious.

"Vivian's, dear," I told her. "You know how she has been ill for a long time. Well, she has died."

Melanie thought for a moment then said, "Oh, well, she will always be with us."

"That's right, dear," I said, surprised and happy with her reply. "Her spirit will always be with us."

What a wonderful reaction to death. I thought, Not many of us can view death with such wholesome clarity.

Funerals are one way of making death seem odious. I think they are barbaric. I don't want people moaning and weeping when I'm

Leaps From Auto: Struck By Train

LEVITTOWN, Pa. (AP) — Mrs. Emily Dadoorian of Upper Southampton Twp. jumped from her stalled auto seconds before a Pennsylvania railroad freight train plowed into the car at a Bucks County crossing on Monday.

Mrs. Dadoorian told investigators her car stalled as she drove across tracks in Upper Southampton Twp. Moments later she saw the train and leaped from the car. The train drove the car about 300 feet demolishing it.

Mrs. Dadoorian was treated for shock.

gone. I'd rather have them open a bottle of champagne and remember the good times we'd had.

I can't conceive that we are merely a seed that is planted on this earth, grows up and dies. Man is immortal. He never dies. He simply is.

But the real I will live on. Rather, it will return to the oneness with God. That is true immortality.

The trouble is that man has created God in his image. We think of Him as a nice old gent with a gold beard and white robes. This reflects our mistaken love of the ego, the human form.

Our bodies are not US. If they were, part of our consciousness would be lost if we cut off an arm. Nor are we just brains. If we were, the brain could work without the body.

Everyone wants to know where they'll go after death. I think they go everywhere. God is in every one of us. When we die, we are freed of the limitations of the body and return to God. We become part of all space, all time, all form.

Will we meet our friends and loved ones? Certainly. Because we will all be one — all part of the Eternal Mind, God.

DAIRY CO-OPS OPPOSE PROBE BY U. S. AG. DEPT.

SPRING MILLS, Pa. (AP) — Five proposed new dairy cooperatives are opposing any investigation by the U. S. Agriculture Department of their projected membership drives.

Harry Corman, Spring Mills dairyman and spokesman for the five groups, said "we have every constitutional right to organize as we see fit within the law."

The action followed a move by the Eastern Cooperative Dairy Producers Council seeking a USDA investigation of mass resignations from the council. The dairy cooperative is one of the largest in the nation.

Corman said the five proposed new cooperatives — members of which are resigned members of Eastern — declared that "responsibility for withdrawal from Eastern and formation of these new cooperatives exists entirely with us."

Have 624 Members
Some 624 members or former members of Eastern have joined the five new cooperatives in Central Pennsylvania, Corman said. The proposed new groups are:

Cooperative Dairy Farmers of Bellefonte; Cooperative Dairy Farmers of Mill Hall; Cooperative Dairy Farmers of Lewisburg; Cooperative Dairy Farms of Middleburg, and Corman's group, the Cooperative Dairy Farmers of Spring Mills.

Corman said the five have applied for state charters and "we anticipate no delay in receiving them."

"As far as we are concerned we have every legal and moral right to set up our own agencies," Corman asserted. "We have given the required 30 days notice to Eastern that we intend to terminate our membership."

Send Wire To Benson
The five groups sent a joint telegram to Ezra T. Benson, U. S. agriculture secretary, opposing Eastern's move for an investigation.

"We fail to see what jurisdiction the USDA would have in any move such as this among private organizations," Corman declared.

Corman said similar telegrams were sent to Dr. Charles J. Bradford, U. S. administrator of New York and New Jersey milk mar-

TRAP WOMAN IN $7,000 SWINDLE

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — A New Jersey woman was arrested on Monday in connection with a scheme that detectives said had taken $7,000 from her employer.

The woman, identified as Mrs. Clare Alloway, 37, of Riverton, N. J., handled accounts and correspondence for the Mercer Rubber Co.

Detectives said she set up a fake paper company, opened a bank account in its name and each month had the Mercer company send it a check for $340.50. She then drew on the account herself, the detectives said. The alleged fraud covered a two-year period.

Mrs. Alloway was arrested after a real paper company, with a similar name, inquired about a small overdue bill. A Mercer official sent a $340.50 check to it by messenger, and the paper company asked why that amount. Further check revealed the shortage, detectives said.

POLICE MUST RETIRE AT 60; MAY BE OUSTED

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania state police will be able, starting the first of the year, to dismiss members of the force who refuse to retire when they reach the age of 60.

That was a ruling handed down on Monday by the State Justice Department in an interpretation of a new law passed by the 1957 Legislature. Several ranking troopers have protested that it did not apply to them.

The Justice Department ruled, however, that resignation "is mandatory and in any case where a member refuses to submit a resignation, the commission has no alternative but immediately to drop such member from the rolls."

Some Are Exempt
The law exempts only the commissioner, the deputy commissioner and members with less than 20 years' service. The Justice Department also said the act does not apply to civilian members of the force.

In another ruling, the Justice Department said civil service preference can not be given to veterans who receive dishonorable, bad conduct or undesirable discharges or who are dismissed from the service.

A third Justice Department opinion declared salaried or part-paid fire chiefs ineligible for extra compensation from the state for work they do for the state police which is also part of the chiefs' routine duties.

CHURCH REPORT SHOWS SIGNS OF PROMISE, FLAWS

By GEORGE W. CORNELL
Associated Press Religion Writer
ST. LOUIS, Mo. (AP) — A sharp, probing light was turned on America's churches today—and it found signs of great promise, but also serious flaws.

The hard-hitting appraisal came in a 6,500 word report on the triennial general assembly of the National Council of Churches.

It cited these factors, among others, as currently widespread characteristics of U. S. religious life:

1. Christian teachings concerning the hereafter have long been sidestepped in many churches, but are now regaining their rightful place in church perspective.

"Spiritual Dedication"
2. A trend in the churches to be ruled by the question, "What does the popular will expect of us?" is changing to a more courageously Christian guidepost, "What is the word of God which we must proclaim?"

3. Modern churches too often have put the accent on secular yardsticks of success—size, statistics and outward attractiveness—rather than spiritual dedication.

4. Many congregations would rather have a minister who is a "good administrator and promoter" than one who is "a loyal and humble disciple of Jesus Christ, a thinker and a fearless prophet of the sovereign and redeeming Lord."

"Human Welfare"
5. Churches too widely have been accepting technology as "the most realistic approach" to human welfare, but now are insisting that man's spiritual condition determines the destiny of the group and the individual.

6. Interest in religion appears to be at an all-time high, with church membership over 100 million, but delinquency, immorality and social confusion also are at peaks.

The wide-ranging report was prepared by the Rev. Dr. Roswell P. Barnes, associate general secretary of the council.

It was presented on the third day of the week-long assembly of

CRIMES END IN CRASH PLANE

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — A 16-year-old boy from Croydon, Pa., today awaited federal grand jury action on charges he and a companion stole several cars and attempted to steal an airplane that wrecked during take-off.

A statement by the youth, Francis Locke, was read on Monday at a preliminary hearing. In it he admitted the thefts. Locke, charged with interstate transportation of a stolen car, gave himself up to Norfolk police Saturday night.

Locke and his companion, whom authorities are holding in Delaware, allegedly drove a car from Pennsylvania to Virginia.

Locke's statement said he and his companion planned to steal an airplane from an airport near his home and fly it to South America. The statement said they had loaded the plane with food taken from a food market and used cars taken from the parking lot of a chemical plant to transport the food to the plane. The cars were returned to the lot according to the statement.

The plane crashed during the attempted take-off and the boys fled — unhurt.

North Dakota played its first collegiate football game in 1894. The team was coached by Prof. Adolf Becholdt.

FRANK GANNETT, 81, PUBLISHER, DIES ON TUESDAY

ROCHESTER, N.Y. (AP) — Frank E. Gannett, who built a $3,000 stake into a newspaper empire, died Tuesday at 5 a.m. He was 81.

The publisher had been under medical care since April 1955, when he suffered a fracture of a vertebra in a fall down stairs at his home.

Gannett retired last April as president of the Gannett Co., Inc., and became president emeritus. The company controls and operates 22 newspapers, 4 radio stations and 3 television stations. Most of the Gannett newspapers are in New York state.

Two thirds of the common stock of the Gannett Co., representing voting control, is held by the Frank E. Gannett Newspaper Foundation, Inc. It is enjoined to continue publishing the newspapers and to have community service as its paramount objective.

Charitable Projects
Gannett directed that the foundation use its funds for charitable, educational and general philanthropic purposes in communities where Gannett newspapers are located and generally circulated. The foundation has made several grants.

Gannett is survived by his wife, the former Caroline Werner; a daughter, Mrs. Charles V. McAdam Jr., Greenwich, Conn.; an adopted son, Dixon, Dearborn, Mich.; and six grandchildren. Frank E. Gannett II was born Oct. 24 to the Dixon Gannetts. Dixon is associated with the Ford Motor Co.

Interested In Politics
Gannett's chief interests besides newspapering were politics, government, aviation, agriculture, public recreation facilities, education and youth.

A Democrat early in life, he became a Republican in 1918 but for many years classed himself as an independent.

He was a candidate for the Republican nomination for president in 1940. He received 33 votes at the convention in Philadelphia. Wendell Willkie was nominated. In 1942, Gannett served as assistant chairman of the Republican National Committee.

AMA PRESIDENT CITES DANGER OF 'NEW PERIL'

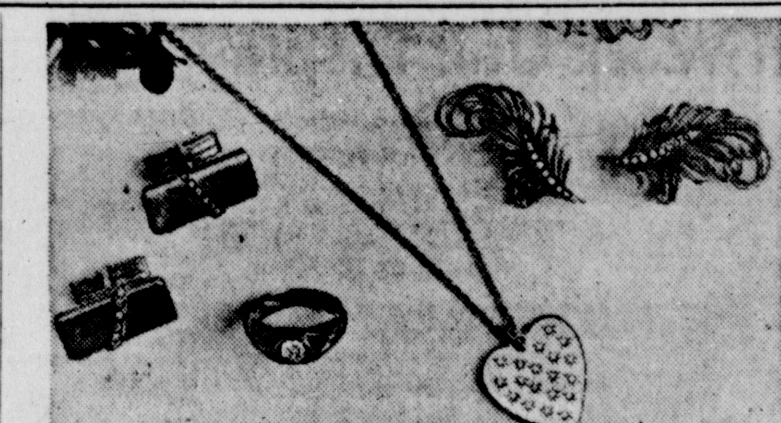

By FRANK CAREY
A.P. Science Reporter
PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Dr. David B. Allman, president of the American Medical Assn., Tuesday urged the nation's organized doctors to fight a "new peril" to their professional freedom.

He called upon all 165,000 AMA members to wage a local-action campaign to enlist support of their communities against proposed national legislation which he declared would, if passed, mark the beginning of the end of the private practice of medicine in this country.

Specifically, he urged the doctors to campaign against a proposal introduced in the closing session of the 85th Congress by Rep. Almon Forand (D-R.I.).

Under the Forand bill, hospitalization and surgical benefits would be provided under the Social Security program.

nual clinical session, and presented at the opening session of the policy-making House of Delegates.

Dr. Allman, an Atlantic City retired surgeon, declared: "If passed, the federal government would withdraw Social Security taxes on a compulsory basis from almost the entire working population and use those taxes to reimburse hospitals and physicians for services rendered to all persons — some 12 to 13 million — eligible to receive old age and survivors' benefits."

"This is socialized medicine," he said, and "national compulsory health insurance all over again."

"It is the beginning of the end of the private practice of medicine," he said.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (AP) — An Arab sheik with 39 wives would like to marry Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt, according to her son James, the California congressman.

Speaking at a State of Israel bond rally, Roosevelt said that while he was in Israel a sheik formally requested to see him to make the offer.

Roosevelt jokingly turned aside the request by telling officials, "I would agree to see him if the state of Israel would promise to pass a law saying that Arabs could add no more wives to those they already have."

CONVICTED GI AND JAP WIFE COMING TO U. S.

CAMP DREW, Japan (AP) — William S. Girard and his Japanese wife Candy began final preparations today for their trip to the United States after Japan decided not to appeal the three-year suspended sentence a Japanese court gave the Illinois soldier.

Maebashi Prosecutor Kaname Watanabe announced the state would not seek a stiffer penalty for the fatal shooting on a firing range last Jan. 30 of Mrs. Naka Sakai, a Japanese scrap scavenger.

Watanabe and the supreme procurator's office in Tokyo said they did not think they could obtain a more severe penalty in a higher court. U.S.-Japanese relations, strained during parts of the celebrated case, were also considered in deciding against an appeal, Supreme Procurator Tadashi Hanai indicated.

Inejiro Asanuma, secretary general of the opposition Socialist party, said the decision was "absolutely deplorable" and "because of outside pressure . . . we will take it up at the next Diet (Parliament) session."

Socialist pressure played the biggest part in forcing the gov-

TEN REDS WILL ESCAPE TRIAL; COURT FREES 5

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The government has "reluctantly" decided not to retry nine California Communist party leaders on Smith Act charges that they conspired to overthrow the government by means of force and violence.

Similar charges were also dismissed on Monday in the case of a 10th party leader, who had been indicted originally with the other nine but never brought to trial because of illness.

Fourteen defendants were convicted after a six-month trial here in 1952. But last June 17 the Supreme Court set five of them free and ruled that the other nine were entitled to new trials.

U.S. Judge Ben Harrison granted the dismissals after Asst. U.S. Atty. Norman Neukom presented a Department of Justice letter which said: "After a careful examination of all the available evidence, it has been concluded that we cannot successfully retry . . . the case."

The Supreme Court's majority opinion contended the Smith Act "was aimed at the advocacy and teaching of concrete action for the forcible overthrow of the government, and not of principles divorced from that action."

ernment to demand Girard's trial in a Japanese court rather than by Army court-martial.

Girard, a 22-year-old specialist third class from Ottawa, Ill., told newsmen with a smile the decision made him "feel good." It leaves him free to return home for discharge soon. A four-year probationary period set by the court when he was sentenced Nov. 19 will not apply outside Japan.

Joseph has recently added "The Absent Minded Murders" by Geor Tabori to his schedule, along with Tabori's satirical comedy "Brouhaha."

News Items For Upper End

Expect Hundreds To See 9th Annual Christmas Parade At Biglerville Saturday At 2:30

Hundreds of countians are expected to line the streets of Biglerville Saturday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock for the ninth annual Christmas parade to be held in that borough.

It will mark the first time in the parade's history that it has been held during the afternoon and it is anticipated that as a result even larger attendance can be expected than the thousands who turned out on prior years.

As usual the parade will be a lengthy conglomeration of floats, marchers, horsemen, antique cars, precision marching groups, decorated bicycles, express wagons, doll carriages and individuals and couples.

To Form At 2 P.M.

Santa Claus and Mrs. Claus normally appear frequently in the parade, but the gala celebration usually takes in all types of costuming from the bizarre to the beautiful.

Sponsored by the Biglerville Business Club, the parade will form at 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon when the competitive floats and antique autos will gather on Third St.; commercial floats will form on Fourth St.; commercial groups including bands will assemble on Warehouse St. while the horseback riders will gather at Musselman's and the children, who are expected to take part this year in even larger numbers, will meet at the Biglerville Fire House.

Following the parade, as customary, the youngsters and adults will be entertained by movies at the elementary school building while the judges complete their tallies and then announce the prizes.

Over $500 In Prizes

More than $500 in prizes will be awarded to the contestants.

L. W. Kleinfelter, floats chairman, has announced $225 in awards in that division. The first prize will be $50, second $35, third and fourth $25 each, fifth and sixth $20 each, seventh and eighth $15 each and ninth and tenth $10 each. Normally the parade contains a great number of floats, many entered by high school classes and church groups.

In addition to the competitive floats, business places in the Upper Adams area also place large numbers of business floats in the procession.

Antique Cars Again
Aline Tipton, chairman of the marching groups division, has announced $225 in prizes for competitors in that section. The awards will include a first prize of $75 and a second of $50 for precision groups such as drum and bugle corps; prizes of $35 first, $25 second and $15 third for amateur marching groups and a $25 prize for military drill teams.

Paul Wagner, head of the antique division, has announced $30 in prizes, $10 first, $7.50 second, $5 each for third and fourth and $2.50 fifth.

Mrs. Kenneth S. Alwine and Mrs. David Pitzer head up the Children's Division with $75 in prizes to be awarded. The prizes will include $7 first, $4 second for bicycles; $5 first, $3 second for express wagons; $5 first, $3 second for doll carriages; $5 first, $4 second and $3 third for individuals; $6 first, $4 second, $2 third, for couples and $10 first and $8 second, for group entries.

Home Decorating Contest

Horseback Riders will receive $32 in awards. Ralph Shetter, chairman for that division, said $15 will be given for first place, $10 for second, $5 third and $2 fourth.

In addition to the parade, the Biglerville Business Club also sponsors the annual home decorations contest in the community. The home decorations will be judged December 18.

K. S. Alwine and J. Roy Diehl Jr., the co-chairmen, have announced $100 in awards including $10 first, $6 second and $4 third for decorated doorways; $20 first, $15 second and $5 third for Christmas scenes and $20 first, $15 second and $5 third for overall lighting.

BRIDE'S STEER IS CHAMPION

CHICAGO (AP)—A Hereford steer, bought by a young Indiana farm wife on her honeymoon, stood in the victor's circle today as the top chunk of beef on the hoof at the International Livestock Exposition.

The 1,000-pound white face called Honeymoon was named grand champion of the show yesterday. The animal's owner, Mrs. Sue Secord of New Goshen, broke into excited tears as the judge slapped Honeymoon on the rump, declaring it the winner.

It was the first time in the exposition's history that the top prize was won by a married woman exhibitor.

Her husband, Pete, 23, squeezed through the crowd to her side in the big tank arena. They kissed one another and planted kisses on Honeymoon's head.

PS Troubadour, last year's champion and a shorthorn exhibited by Pennsylvania State University.

STAYMAN ARE ON TOP AGAIN

The all-purpose Stayman regained its leadership in apple production in Pennsylvania commercial orchards this year, according to the state Department of Agriculture.

Top variety last year was the York Imperial which originated in York County and is the most popular apple in the state for canning.

According to latest surveys by the Pennsylvania Crop Reporting Service, production of all varieties in Pennsylvania's commercial apple counties is estimated at 6,100,000 bushels, or 13 per cent above the 5,400,000 bushels a year ago. The Pennsylvania 10-year 1956-55 average is 6,358,000 bushels.

Penna. Is Sixth

Pennsylvania this year ranks sixth among all the states in total production of apples.

The 1,342,000 bushels of Staymans produced in 1957 compares with 990,000 bushels last year, or a 34 per cent increase, federal-state surveys show. The output is five per cent above the 10-year average. Production of York Imperials this year was 1,227,000 bushels, slightly below the 1,404,000 bushels of 1956.

Other major varieties, in order of ranking, are: Red Delicious, 744,000 bushels; Rome Beauty, 598,000 bushels; Jonathan, 403,000 bushels; Golden Delicious, 352,000 bushels, and McIntosh, 282,000 bushels.

Select Dates For '58 Livestock Fair

HARRISBURG (AP)—Tentative dates next November have been selected for the 2nd annual Pennsylvania National Livestock Exposition.

Leon Falk Jr., Pittsburgh, president of the Pennsylvania Livestock and Allied Industries Assn. Inc., announced yesterday the exposition will be held Nov. 11-14, subject to final approval of the association at its annual meeting here Dec. 13.

Agriculture Secretary William L. Hennig said a $50,000 appropriation is available for the 1958 exposition to help pay for premiums. The same amount was awarded at this year's show last month.

BIG TIME

NEW YORK (AP)—Two plays are heading for Broadway that were originally planned for display in small off - Broadway showhouses.

The cut (2½ hour) version of the Bernard Shaw drama is visiting 42 cities between New Orleans and Boston. The cast includes Tyrone Power, Arthur Treacher and Faye Emerson.

W-M CAGERS ARE HURT IN CRASH

Gettysburg and Villanova will play the preliminary game in the Palestra tonight.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Highway accident in bad weather has sent seven members of the William and Mary basketball team to Casualty Hospital here. Two of them were listed today as in serious condition.

The players were hurt last night in a collision between a car and the station wagon in which they were driving to a game with the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia tonight. The collision occurred on a hill near Rosaryville, Md., about 20 miles south-east of the Capital.

There was no immediate word on whether the injuries to the seven would prevent the William and Mary team from operating. Among those injured was Raymond Varga, 20, Homestead, Pa. Hospital officials said his condition was fair. Two persons in the other vehicle suffered minor injuries.

Maryland state police trooper C. M. Wolford said he had charged Raymond Cayer, 23, Montreal, Que., with improper passing on a hill.

CALL TO ACTION

BOSTON (AP)—Dr. Alma Locke Cooke, a woman doctor who served 30 years as a Congregational Christian missionary in China, was about to retire. Then she heard missionary doctors were needed in West Africa. By mid-November, she had packed her stethoscope and was off for the dark continent — at the age of 70.

ANNIVERSARY PLANS

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP)—The Church of the Nazarene, preparing for events celebrating its golden anniversary year in 1958 marking the 50th year since its founding, has appointed 100 pastors in key areas to serve as publicity chairmen.

NOTRE DAME, Ind. (AP)—The founder of the Catholic Youth organization, the Most Rev. Bernard J. Sheil, says that juvenile delinquency "is basically a problem for the adult conscience." Writing in the current issue of the weekly, the Ave Maria, he says that the conditions that lead to delinquency "have been created, not by children but by adults."

Touchy Question Confronts Churches

ST. LOUIS (AP)—A touchy question throughout the history of the National Council of Churches—its authority in relation to member denominations — has come up at its General Assembly here.

The point was raised by the Rev. Dr. Truman B. Douglas, executive vice president of the Congregational Christian Churches. He said the separate denominations have yet to recognize the "real dimensions" of the Council.

They act as if they "are the master," and the Council is only "a slave," he said.

The National Council includes most of the major Protestant and Orthodox churches — 300 denominations altogether — with a total of 37½ million members, nearly a fourth of the nation's population.

PRINCE ADMITS MISSION TO RED HUNGARY FAILS

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—Thailand's Prince Wan Wathayakon said today he must tell the General Assembly that his mission to find out what is going on inside Communist-ruled Hungary has ended in complete failure. The outcome had been expected.

The Assembly's special emissary said his three-month effort finally reached a dead end this week when Hungarian Foreign Minister Imre Horvath rebuffed his request to discuss the Hungarian problem.

Want Retaliation

The Red rejection aroused speculation that the U.N. Credentials Committee might retaliate by refusing to recommend seating the Hungarians in the Assembly, an action deferred during Wan's mission.

Prince Wan said Horvath denied his request for talks on grounds that it constituted interference in Hungary's internal affairs and that the Assembly resolution charging him with the mission was illegal. That has been the Soviet bloc position ever since the Assembly took up the Hungarian revolt.

Started In September

The Thailand foreign minister was appointed by the 82-nation Assembly early in September to take "appropriate steps" to obtain compliance with previous Assembly resolutions calling for withdrawal of Soviet forces from Hungary.

Meanwhile, private negotiations were under way to produce a conciliatory Algerian resolution that might be acceptable to both France and the Arab nations.

JORDAN BLOCKS CONVOY THROUGH DISPUTED AREA

JERUSALEM (AP)—Israel today held up dispatch of a disputed convoy through Jordanian territory as U.N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld and Prime Minister David Ben-Gurion held a long private conference.

Refusal by Jordan to let gasoline-carrying convoys through the Israeli-held Mt. Scopus enclave one of the causes of Hammarskjöld's Middle East visit, continued despite his talks Monday in Amman with Jordanian officials. The secretary general began conversations with Israeli officials here yesterday.

Hammarskjöld's talk with Ben-Gurion was expected to be followed by a meeting of U.N. and Israeli military, political and legal advisers.

Officials of the U.N. truce supervisory organization were reluctant to discuss prospects for departure of the convoy, which had been scheduled for today.

9 Drums Of Gas

There were no signs at Mandelbaum Gate, the border crossing that a convoy was expected today. Jordan turned back the last convoy two weeks ago because it carried nine drums of gasoline. Jordanian officials charged the gas would be used in connection with fortification work prohibited by the Palestine armistice.

Israel denied that any military work was involved. Her spokesmen said the gasoline would be used to run an electric generator.

Hammarskjöld flew in from Amman in a U.N. plane, landed at a Jordanian airport, skirted Mt. Scopus and entered Israel by the Mandelbaum Gate.

He met with Ben-Gurion and Israeli Foreign Minister Golda Meir. A communique said their talks "extended over the main current of problems affecting the Israel-Jordan armistice situation."

BINGO FIGHT CONTINUES

NEW YORK (AP)—Protestants in New York state, who conducted a losing campaign against the recent adoption of a constitutional amendment to make bingo games legal under a county option play, say the fight isn't over. The official organ of the Protestant Council of New York said legal bingo can still be defeated in county votes.

GUILD FAVORITE

NEW YORK (AP)—Novelist Peter DeVries is becoming the Theatre Guild's favorite author. Last season he converted his book "Tunnel of Love" into a still-running stage comedy for the Guild. Now the production firm has acquired dramatic rights to DeVries' new novel "Mackerel Plaza," published early next year.

SEN. RUSSELL FIGHTS NEW FOREIGN AID

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Russell (D-Ga.) sought today to build opposition to the administration's new $3,940,000,000 foreign aid program even before its formal presentation to Congress.

Shortly after the program was outlined to congressional leaders at a White House conference, Russell called for diverting the bulk of the proposed spending to buying more military missiles.

But Rep. Albert (Okla.), House Democratic whip, predicted Congress would approve most of the amount requested, though economic aid "might be cut some."

Draws Fire Too

The administration's proposal to extend the reciprocal trade agreement program for another five years drew fire too. Many in both houses claimed it would be lucky to get a one-year renewal. The authority of the President to cut tariffs on a reciprocal basis now is due to expire June 30.

The opposition to both measures was noted in the face of advice from Secretary of State Dulles against concentrating so much attention on a military buildup that the "political, economic, psychological warfare" with which Russia seeks to extend its power is forgotten in the excitement created by the Russian Sputnik.

Russell, chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, said the proposed foreign aid program could be "reduced substantially."

Some Supporters

But Albert's support of the program was echoed by Rep. Moran (D-Pa.), top Democrat present from the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

"I think that the members were impressed with the danger we are in from some of our enemies, and the conference was very successful."

Rep. Van Zandt (R-Pa.) said he understood $1,800,000,000 of the money would be used to provide military weapons for allies, and

3 SEGREGATION BILLS IN TEXAS

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP)—The Texas Legislature went home yesterday after spending 21 days in special session passing three segregation bills.

Gov. Price Daniel, a Democrat, called the special session.

The first two bills, asked by the governor and passed last week, would close public schools when there are mob or riot threats, and would give the state attorney general $50,000 to help fight local integration suits in federal courts.

$2,100,000,000 for economic help, including 625 millions for the economic development fund.

The final bill would allow county judges to require registration of organizations involved in school integration troubles. Backers of the bill openly said it was aimed at hamstringing the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People. It would require such groups to list members, officers and affiliations.

TRUCKER HELD FOR SHOOTING

MILLERSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Truck driver James Edward Hampton was being held in Perry County jail today, charged with shooting a man fleeing from his home near here yesterday.

The victim, William G. Geedy, 24, Newport R. D. was reported in satisfactory condition in Harrisburg's Polyclinic Hospital.

The 46-year-old Hampton man was arraigned last night before Justice of the Peace William D. Smith and charged with assault with intent to kill. In a statement Hampton said he did not mean to

Fraud Trial Is Postponed Again

HARRISBURG (AP)—A new postponement has been granted the shoot Geedy, but had fired into the ground. He was ordered held in $1,000 bail for the next session of court.

Hampton said Geedy, who was unemployed, fled from the house when Hampton arrived from work at noon.

Mrs. Hampton, 38, who was home at the time, helped take the wounded man to a doctor. Hampton's statement accused his wife of running around with other men.

The couple has three children, a married daughter and two children living at home aged 11 and 9.

three men awaiting trial on charges of giving the state short weight in deliveries of cinders.

Dauphin County Court yesterday granted a continuance, the third, until the January term of criminal court, commencing Jan. 13.

The defendants are Victor Pre Frackville cinder contractor; I. J. Price, Columbia, former employee of the Department of Property and Supplies, and Frank S. Jamieson, former Chester County maintenance engineer for the Highways Department.

They are charged with false pretense and conspiracy.

Prep was convicted in September of conspiring to defraud the state in the sale of cinders in York County. He has appealed.

A Christmas treat! "Santa and the STRONG BOY"

had been for 300 years and, as a result, Milzenpoo was the happiest and laziest kingdom in the land.
Now, by and by, it happened that there was a king of Milzenpoo who had no sons. This made the king very sad for he was getting old and he needed a son to help him care for his people.

The king wished and wished for a son and finally his wish came true: a son was born.

While the whole kingdom rejoiced, Noodle, Tiggie and Livingstone were in a frenzy. It had been so long since a prince was born that when the three men looked in their cupboard they found that their pots of Strength, Courage and Wisdom had completely dried up.

"We must make new batches!" groaned Tiggie. "And quickly, for the prince is already four hours old and if we wait past nine hours the magic will not work."

"Oh, dear! Oh, dear!" moaned Livingstone. "This rushing makes me so nervous. If only we had known a prince was on the way!"

"Never mind," said Noodle. "We must go the best we can. I'll read the recipe and you, Tiggie, measure the ingredients and you, Livingstone, do the mixing."

So they worked and the hours flew by one, two, three until the new prince was eight hours old.

Noodle's eyes were red from reading in ancient cook books. Tiggie was cross-eyed from measuring a thousand ingredients. And Livingstone was spattered from head to toes with all he'd spilled. But ready, in three separate bowls, were the three potions: Strength, Courage, Wisdom.

While the others cleaned themselves Noodle measured out several drops from the bowl of Strength. He moved that bowl to the floor to show he had used it and then he raced away to the palace.

Tiggie came next and seeing the bowl on the floor he thought Noodle had put it there for him. So he, too, took several drops from the bowl of Strength and raced away to the palace.

Then came Livingstone. "Ah," he said. "They've left the last bowl on the floor for me!" Carefully he measured out several drops of Strength before he, too, raced off to the palace.

Each little man stole into the palace nursery and sprinkled his magic potion on the sleeping prince. Then, their task done, they met again in the watermelon house.

"What a prince this boy will be!" cried Noodle. "I gave him a truly whopping sprinkling of Strength."

"Why I myself gave him from the bowl of Strength."

"Great heavens!" wailed Livingstone. "I did the same!"

Agghast, they stared at one another.

Finally Noodle whispered, "He'll be the strongest boy in the world!"

"A strong boy with no courage," groaned Tiggie.

"And no wisdom," cried Livingstone.

And the three little men broke into sobs of grief.

WOULD EXPEL TEAMSTERS

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—The AFL-CIO Executive Council gathered today to recommend a formal expulsion of the Teamsters Union, which claims a tenth of the federation's 15 million members.

The council was acting on corruption charges developed in months of hearings before the Senate Rackets Committee.

It also was expected to vote expulsion recommendations for the Bakery, Laundry and Distillery Workers unions, similarly involved in charges of corruption.

The recommendations will go to the AFL-CIO convention convening here tomorrow.

Expulsion of the four unions, with about 1 1/2 million members, was mapped by AFL-CIO President George Meany as a demonstration that organized labor can deal effectively with racketeering in labor's ranks.

Meany and other AFL-CIO chiefs hoped it would help them stave off threatened punitive legislation from Congress and warn leaders of other unions against mulcting union funds.

The Teamsters, Bakers and Laundry Workers already are under AFL-CIO suspension and their expulsion was regarded as only a formality.

HONESDALE, Pa. (AP)—An auto crashed into a ditch off Route 6 in Pike County on Monday, killing Mrs. Irene Rickert, 56, Honesdale, widow of John J. Rickert. She was pronounced dead at the scene by Dr. J. S. Bullock, Pike County coroner.

It was announced that fruit cake samples have arrived, and orders for the cakes may be placed with any Jaycee. Announcement was also made that the traffic safety doll kits have been received, and will be distributed to the children of the first and second grades of Rolling Acres Elementary School and St. Aloysius Parochial School sometime this week through the courtesy of the chapter.

Preliminary plans were discussed for the annual variety show to be presented again this year on a date in February. L. Robert Snyder and William R. Keefer will serve as co-chairmen for the affair, and the following committees have been appointed: Tickets, Ralph C. Unger and Wilmer Dutterer; stage, Ronald B. Hall, Clyde Bucher, and Noah V. Brown; publicity, Emerson F. Muller, Paul F. Boller Jr. and Paul E. Hiltzbrink Jr.; refreshments, Robert V. Weaver, Raymond C. Scott and Ray T. Harner.

DANCE TEAM PLAYS HERSHEY

HERSHEY, Pa. — The popular dance team of Walter and Irene is appearing in the current edition of Ice Follies at Hershey Sports Arena through Saturday.

The feminine half of the team, Irene Maguire, a native of Brooklyn, completed five Gold Dance tests before she teamed up with her husband and skating partner, Walter Muehlbrunner. In their amateur days they won eight Eastern United States and North American competitions and finished third in the world dance contests in London in 1950.

WALTER AND IRENE

Like most members of the Ice Follies cast, Walter and Irene have hobbies to help them take up their spare time while they are touring the United States and Canada.

Irene carries a portable sewing machine and makes all their clothes, as well as various items for the home they plan to buy when they retire from professional skating.

Walter's off ice talents lay in the field of music. And, to assist him in his hobby, he carries a portable, electric piano from city to city. He is studying harmony and counterpoint via an extension course from the University of California.

In this year's show, Walter and Irene demonstrate their ice dancing technique in a colorful number called "Sweethearts."

Morocco's King Sees Disneyland

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Not even a king can resist the land of make-believe.

Morocco's Mohammed V made a formal visit to Disneyland yesterday, in native regalia and with full entourage.

He was so enchanted by what he saw that last night he slipped away from his hotel incognito and traveled 35 miles to visit the famous fantasy-land all over again, in the role of a commoner.

Some 22 members of the royal party went with him. But, like the king, they were in Western attire.

BRISTOL, Pa. (AP)—The population has increased somewhat in Bristol Township since the last census—more than 350 per cent, in fact.

Township fathers arranged for a new count, knowing they could claim additional state highway fund benefits on increased population figures.

They found the township now has 56,293 residents — an increase of 44,109 over the 12,184 who lived there during the 1950 census.

An influx of industry and the new residential community of Levittown is Responsible. The township is a few miles northeast of Philadelphia.

SQUILLANTE IS INDICTED AGAIN FOR EXTORTION

MINEOLA, N.Y. (AP)—Vincent J. Squillante, under fire on several fronts as the kingpin of the New York Metropolitan garbage disposal rackets, was indicted again today on extortion charges.

Indictments of Squillante and five other men were disclosed in the early morning hours after a night session of an extraordinary Nassau County rackets grand jury sitting in this LLong Island commuter suburb.

Squillante, 40, already was in jail in New York City on a years-old federal income tax charge.

He refused to talk in Washington before a Senate committee investigating rackets in the fields of labor and management. The committee was inquiring into mobster control of a large segment of the 50-million-dollar-a-year garbage carting industry in the New York City Metropolitan area.

Indicted Two Weeks Ago
Squillante was indicted here two weeks ago on another extortion charge.

Those indicted with him today were: his brother, Nunzio, 38; Bernard Adelstein, 49, secretary-treasurer and business manager of private sanitation Local 813 of the Teamsters Union; Alfred Fasula; John Guariglia, listed as an ex-convict, and his brother, Patsy, both of Brooklyn.

The new indictments came as Dist. Atty. Frank Gulotta pressed his war on racketeers and other underworld characters residing in plush homes in the county. "Get out of the county" is the watchword of Gulotta's campaign of harassment.

Raid Spurred Action
Gulotta's campaign started after the garbage disposal inquiry of the Senate committee.

Another spur was the state police raid on a mobster meeting Nov. 14 at Apalachin, an upstate New York hamlet. The 60 characters who attended — some of them from Nassau County — were let go after questioning. State police said there was no charge on which they could be held.

Today, Adelstein, Fasula and the Guariglias were picked up at their homes, jailed and held for arraignment.

Officers could not find Nunzio Squillante at his home or elsewhere.

Eastern Storm Seen Dying Out

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A storm which dumped from 1 to 5 inches of snow across areas east of the Mississippi River to the Atlantic Coast appeared dying out today.

However, light snow continued during the early morning in Minnesota, the Ohio Valley, lower Great Lakes region and the Washington-New York City area.

The snow belt extended in a narrow belt across Illinois, Indiana, Ohio, Pennsylvania and metropolitan New York. Biggest falls included 5 inches at Columbus, Ohio; 4 at Bradford, Pa.; and 3 in many cities.

Rain fell along the Atlantic Seaboard south of Washington, mostly east of the Appalachians.

4TH BOOSTER POLIO SHOT RECOMMENDED

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—A fourth "booster" shot of Salk polio vaccine next spring for all persons who have previously received the usual three shots was recommended today by a University of Pennsylvania doctor.

Reports To AMA
At the same time, Dr. Lewis L. Coriell urged all persons under 40 who haven't done so to complete the usual three shot course of "properly spaced" injections.

Such a system, he said, offers the possibility for "virtual elimination of paralytic poliomyelitis as a significant disease in 1958."

Coriell, associate professor of immunology in pediatrics at the university's School of Medicine, said in a report prepared for the 11th clinical session of the American Medical Assn:

"Three years of increasingly widespread use of . . . (Salk) polio vaccine have coincided with unprecedented reduction in reported cases of poliomyelitis. A particularly low incidence and low paralytic rate are the outstanding features of the 1957 season."

He said estimates suggest that protection against paralytic disease approached 90 per cent in patients who received "three or more" properly spaced injections of vaccine, and 75 to 80 per cent in those receiving less than three shots.

The doctor declared that in view of downward polio trends since the advent of the vaccine "it seems logical to predict that poliomyelitis will be reduced even more drastically in 1958 provided the vaccination program is continued, including a full course of three properly spaced injections for all persons under 40 years of age and a fourth booster dose in the spring of 1958 to all who have previously received three or more injections."

"Three years of increasingly widespread use of . . . (Salk) polio vaccine have coincided with unprecedented reduction in reported cases of poliomyelitis. A particularly low incidence and low paralytic rate are the outstanding features of the 1957 season."

He said estimates suggest that protection against paralytic disease approached 90 per cent in patients who received "three or more" properly spaced injections of vaccine, and 75 to 80 per cent in those receiving less than three shots.

The doctor declared that in view of downward polio trends since the advent of the vaccine "it seems logical to predict that poliomyelitis will be reduced even more drastically in 1958 provided the vaccination program is continued, including a full course of three properly spaced injections for all persons under 40 years of age and a fourth booster dose in the spring of 1958 to all who have previously received three or more injections."

LEADER CITES NEW CAR COST IN FRISCO TALK

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Pennsylvania's Gov. Leader said today one of the nation's motor companies spent twice as much this year bringing out a new car as "the 110 million dollars which our government thought sufficient for an American space satellite."

He said he had no criticism of the car companies but felt the nation's economy could be expanded to "defend our rate of scientific progress and, with it, our rate of human progress."

In an address prepared for the American Municipal Assn., Leader declared:

"If there are to be sacrifices, let them come equally across the board."

Urges Sacrifices
"If we must let our slums stand for another generation, if we must crowd our children into two-shift schools, if we must pollute our rivers into an indefinite future—well then, we must."

But if we accept these sacrifices in the area of public action, then let us insist that the financiers of America accept a lowered interest rate, and that the automobile manufacturers strip some of the unnecessary horsepower, the chrome and the sales appeal from their cars."

The governor said the United States must match Russia in science, but:

"While we are doing it we must take care that they do not pass us in living standards."

"That means, in my judgment, an intensified effort to clear every slum in America, an intensified effort to make our cities livable, an intensified effort to maintain full employment."

Republican And Democratic Leaders Striving Hard To Prevent Primary Contests

By LEONARD A. UNGER
HARRISBURG (AP) — Democratic and Republican leaders were reported today operating desperately behind the scenes to stave off primary election fights among themselves next year.

The big question remained: Would they succeed?

Not since 1938 have both parties, in the same year, involved themselves in deep-seated factional battles in choosing candidates for governor and U.S. Senator.

The changes appeared only even that 1938 would not repeat itself. George I. Bloom, Republican state chairman, was known to have drummed the harmony theme into the ears of other party chieftains during the state convention of GOP women at Philadelphia last week.

Signs of Bitterness
And that will be his objective in attending hotel room conferences at the Pennsylvania Society Dinner in New York Dec. 14 sponsored by the cream of Pennsylvania Republicanism.

Close associates of Bloom, who declined quotation by name, said the Republican chairman encountered vestiges of bitterness from the spectacular GOP split in 1950.

And, on an interesting tack, Bloom has injected himself into Democratic politics with repeated statements that Gov. Leader is opposing the efforts of Lt. Gov. Roy E. Furman to seek the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

Opposition To Furman
One of the recent was an attack on the appointment of Daniel B. Swane, Fayette County, to the state liquor control board. Bloom said it was a move to build up Democratic opposition against Furman, who resides in neighboring Greene County.

But Sen. Joseph M. Barr, Democratic state chairman, was reported to have brought about Furman's appearance at Swane's oath-taking ceremonies. It resulted in both Leader and Furman appearing in the same group.

Leader is known to be ready to support Mayor Richardson Dilworth of Philadelphia for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination if the latter wants it.

Dilworth is Silent
Dilworth, who would have to resign as mayor the minute he announces for the post, has kept silent about his intentions. The first day to circulate nomination petitions is Feb. 25. The deadline for filing them is March 17.

Presumably, party leaders on both sides will have slated their candidates before then, particularly if it seems a party fight can be avoided.

There has been speculation that Coroner William D. McClelland of Allegheny County may again seek the Democratic gubernatorial nomination as he did in 1954 against Leader.

The same reports team McClelland with former U. S. Atty. Gen. James McGranery of Philadelphia, with the latter opposing Leader for the U. S. senatorial nomination.

Many GOP Candidates
On the Republican side, the number of possible Republican candidates for statewide office is perhaps the largest since 1934 when 16 Republicans ran for the gubernatorial nomination.

Aud. Gen. Charles C. Smith and William S. Livengood Jr., former secretary of internal affairs, have been prominently mentioned as possible candidates for governor.

The list also include such figures as state treasurer Robert F. Kent, Secretary of the Navy Thomas S. Gates Jr., Arthur P. McGonigle, Reading pretzel manufacturer and Republican state finance chairman, and State Sen. William Z. Scott (R-Carbon).

Bloom himself and U. S. Rep. James E. Van Zandt of Altoona have been mentioned for the senatorial nomination to succeed retiring U. S. Sen. Edward Martin.

Delay Installing 'Pike Guard Rails

HARRISBURG (AP)—The Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission has put off definitely installation of guard rails on sections of the turnpike in western Pennsylvania.

The commission decided at its meeting yesterday to undertake a study of comparative fatalities caused by vehicles crossing over the median strip on various sections of the superhighway.

Tentative plans had been to award the contract for the quarter-million-dollar project yesterday. It had been proposed to install 12 miles of guard rails on portions of the turnpike in Westmoreland, Somerset and Bedford counties.

However, Highway Secretary Lewis M. Stevens, an ex-officio member of the commission, questioned whether these sections had the highest number of fatalities from cross-over collisions. The commission agreed to put the matter under study.

WAGE TAX CASE IS DISMISSED

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — The U. S. District Court has dismissed a test case filed by a New Jersey resident who is employed at the Navy Yard here and is protesting against payment of Philadelphia's wage tax.

George Thompson of Audubon Park had brought the action to determine whether he and some 3,500 other federal employees, living in New Jersey but working in Philadelphia, must pay the city's wage tax. The city claims Thompson owes $700 in back taxes and penalties for failure to file returns for 1950 through 1956.

In dismissing the case yesterday Judge Francis L. Van Dusen said Thompson had not exhausted legal avenues open to him in state courts. But the judge added that he feels the city is justified in imposing the wage tax on New Jersey residents working at the Navy Yard.

PERISH IN BLAZE

Firemen reported finding the sixth victim's body early today. Five bodies were recovered previously.

All the dead were employees at the small glass-blowing company. Five were women.

WANT RUBBER THUMBS

REED RESIGNS CHAIRMANSHIP OF CIVIL RIGHTS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Plans of the new Civil Rights Commission to start work next week were halted indefinitely today by the surprise resignation of its chairman.

Stanley F. Reed, the former Supreme Court justice who had agreed to head the six-member commission, disclosed yesterday he had changed his mind.

Reed told President Eisenhower in a letter of resignation that "for me to accept such an investigatory and advisory office in the executive department, after service upon the Supreme Court in many civil rights cases, now seems to me incompatible with my obligations as a judge."

tions as a judge."

Respects Reasons
The White House made public Reed's hand-written letter, along with Eisenhower's reply accepting the resignation.

The President wrote Reed that "under the circumstances, I must respect the reasons you give for being unable to serve" on the commission.

The White House announced indefinite postponement of a commission organization meeting that had been set for next Monday. Eisenhower's press secretary James C. Hagerty said he had no information on when the President will name a new commission member to replace Reed.

The bipartisan commission was created by Congress in a civil rights law passed late last summer. The group was empowered to make a two-year investigation of federal laws and policies bearing on equal protection of the laws, and to look into alleged denials of voting rights.
